 Use of personal data

Radley History Club holds the following personal data: (i) the data provided by you on this membership application form and (ii) your signature indicating attendance at a speaker meeting.

Personal data are used only for Club purposes to keep members up-to-date with Club matters and to disseminate information of potential interest to members. Meeting attendance records are used to provide a list for fire safety purposes and to provide information to the committee on meeting attendance.

If you wish to know what information is held on you by the Club, or to ask for your details to be removed from its records, please contact the Membership Secretary (by post at the address above or via email to membership@radleyhistoryclub.org.uk).

Full details of the Club's data protection policy are available on its website.
